Producer

Thomas Gould is a 1Y MBA in the Gold Cohort. While he originally hails from the Hudson Valley, NY, he has spent the past three years in Washington, DC, in an international affairs advocacy office as a communications manager. He is looking to move to NY, closer to Broadway, for his post-MBA journey. Catch him in Evans Hall next year at an Arts & Culture Club or Out of Office event. This appearance in the SOMulation is his first theater debut since he played the villain in his high school musical in his senior year.

WHATUP BEYOTCHES!!! Guess who's GRADUATING Won't you miss me next year when I'm gone, living my best life in NYC, girlbossing and maximizing shareholder value. Now that I am leaving, NEW HAVEN PIZZA SUCKS. Dominoes all the way. Shoutout to my girls at Out of Office and the Arts & Culture Club, and to Jiwoong Shin. Will miss you all so much. To my classmates, I love all of you -- with one exception. You know know who you are. And you know what you did. PEACE OUT!
